A community of passionate software developers and enthusiasts across Africa.

SUMMARY

I'm passionate about design, web development, accessibility and usability of digital web products

STRENGTHS

● Organisation and planning

I understand that the success or failure of any endeavor is significantly affected by careful and coordinated focus-driven attempts to execute independent tasks.

● UI Design

I'm aware of a significant number of the constraints of web technologies and tailor my UI designs to match what is feasible and attainable while maintaining modern trends.

● UI Development

I've learnt to use appropriate markup and proper styling for UI components from small to large scale products on the web while using less code and/or external libraries where necessary to enhance the performance of web products.
